9. A student or person admitted to studies who has been granted accommodation in a student residence may request a change of the allocated room before check-in begins.
10. A request to change accommodation within the same student residence shall be submitted to the relevant SD Manager. If the change concerns a different student residence, the request shall be submitted to the SH Coordinator.
11. In the case of individuals referred to in § 12 and § 13 of the Rules, accommodation procedures shall be determined by the SH Coordinator in consultation with the Head of the Admissions Office.

Chapter V

Deposit

§ 15.

[General Provisions]

1. The deposit shall be paid as security for any potential claims of the University of Szczecin arising from:
 - 1) costs of repairing material damage in the room or elsewhere in the student residence caused by the resident;
 - 2) failure to account for student residence furnishings, fixtures, and equipment;
 - 3) outstanding accommodation fees.
2. The deposit must be paid by the individuals referred to in § 3 Items 2 and 3 of the Rules, who have received confirmation of accommodation allocation.
3. The deposit also applies to students who are undertaking studies at the University of Szczecin under the Erasmus+, MOST, or other mobility programmes.

4. The deposit is non-interest-bearing and may not be used for purposes other than those specified in the Rules.
5. The deposit does not apply in the case of short-term accommodation (i.e., less than one month).
6. Payment of the deposit is a prerequisite for obtaining accommodation in a student residence.

§ 16.

[Deposit Amount and Payment Deadline]

1. The deposit amount shall be determined by the Rector's Ordinance on student residence accommodation fees.
2. A person who has been allocated accommodation must pay the deposit within the timeframe specified in the Schedule to the bank account indicated in the notice.
3. A person who has been allocated accommodation after the Round II must pay the deposit within 7 days from receiving the accommodation confirmation.
4. A student who has been granted permission to continue living in their current room in the following academic year must pay the deposit by 30 June.

§ 17.

[The rules for the use of the deposit]

1. The deposit may be used to cover the claims referred to in § 15 Item 1.
2. In the case of a change of student residence, the deposit amount remains unchanged and is transferred to the appropriate student dormitory's bank account.
3. If any deduction is made from the deposit, the resident is required to top up the deposit amount within 14 days from the deduction date.
4. If the entire deposit is used, the resident must fully replenish it.

§ 18.

[Deposit Refund]

1. The deposit is refunded within 30 working days from the date of submitting an application to the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs of the University of Szczecin via the SD Manager, provided the resident has moved out and:
 - 1) the room has been returned without objections;
 - 2) all obligations towards the student residence have been settled.
2. The deposit may also be refunded in other situations specified in the Rules.
3. The refund is issued upon submission of a written request, to the bank account indicated in the request.
4. The template of the declaration referred to in Item 3 is provided in Attachment No. 4 to the Rules.

5. The deposit may be carried over to the following academic year, provided the resident submits the appropriate application.
6. The template of the declaration referred to in Item 5 is provided in Attachment No. 6 to the Rules.

§ 19.

[Liability for Damage]

1. In the event of damage, the resident is required to remedy it by:
 - 1) restoring the damaged area to its original state;
 - 2) paying the assessed cost to the residence account;
 - 3) allowing the appropriate amount to be deducted from the deposit.
2. If the perpetrator of damage in shared areas cannot be identified, all residents of the respective room, module, or floor are jointly liable.
3. The amount of any deduction is determined by the SD Manager in consultation with the SDC.
4. If damage is discovered after the resident has moved out, the deposit refund may be withheld until full settlement of the damages.

Chapter VI

Final Provisions

[Dispute Resolution]

All and any disputes concerning the deposit shall be resolved by the SH Coordinator following consultation with the SD Manager.
